WHY ARE YOU WEeping DEAR KATHLEEN.

Words by J. M. BROWN.

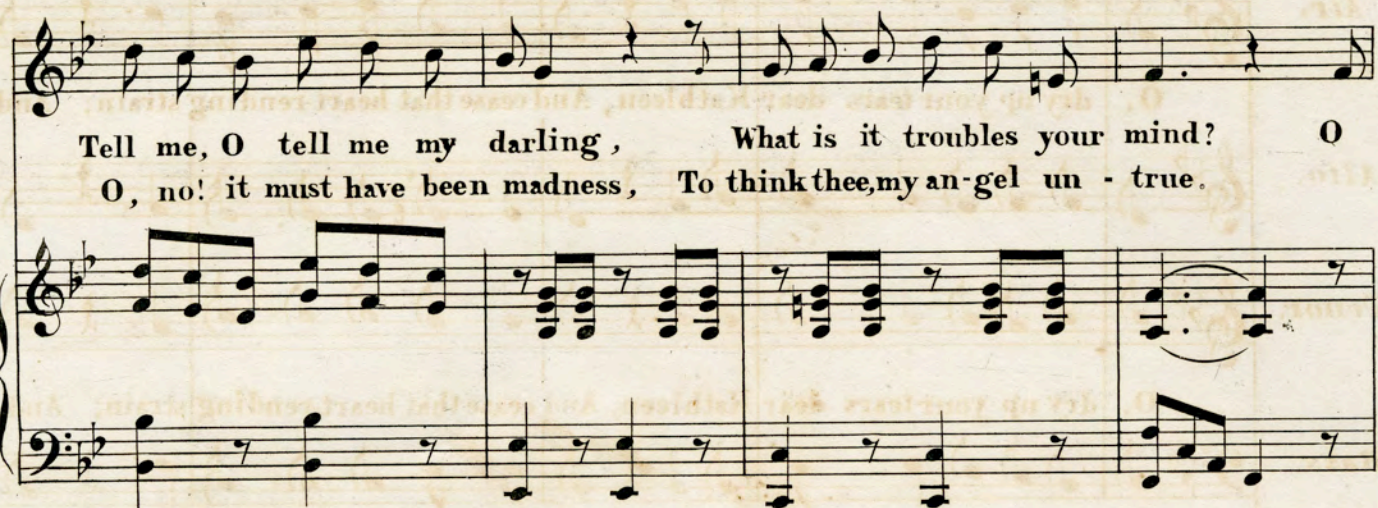

Music by F. WILDER.

Con affetuoso.

1 Why are you weeping dear Kathleen? Your eyes with the tears are blurr'd;.....
2 'Twas in a moment of sadness, I spoke so harshly to you;.....

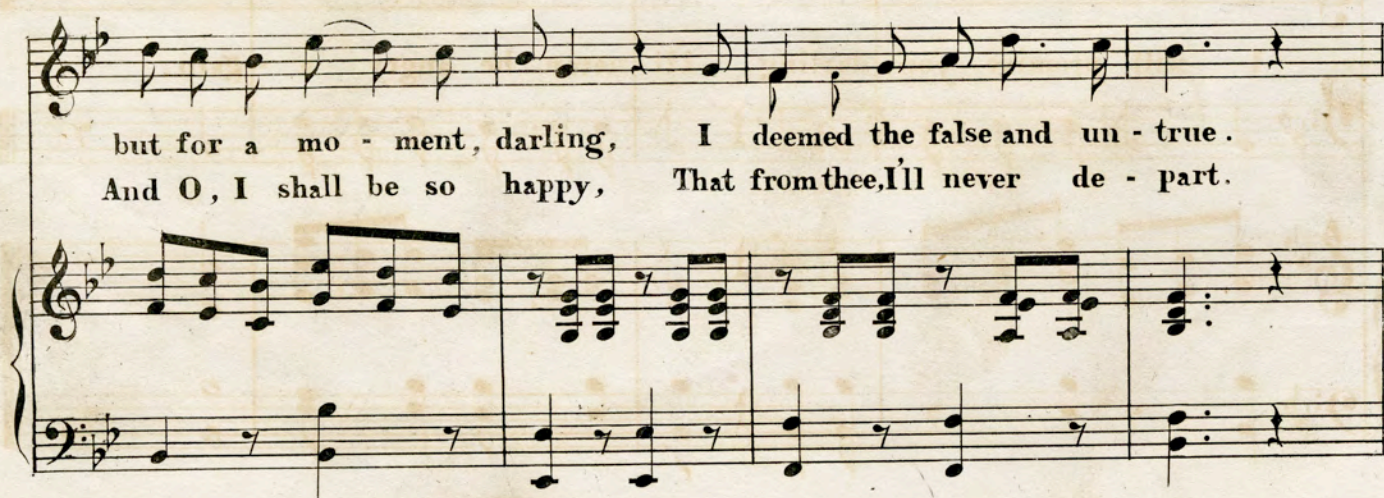

Tell me, O tell me my darling,      What is it troubles your mind?      O
O, no! it must have been madness,      To think thee, my an-gel un - true.

sure - ly you have for - gotten      The cross word I spoke to you. - 'Twas Say you for-give me my darling,      For-give me with all your heart, but for a mo - ment, darling,      I deemed the false and un - true.

And O, I shall be so happy,      That from thee, I'll never de - part.

CHORUS.

5

Air.

O, dry up your tears dear Kathleen, And cease that heart-rending strain; And

Alto.

Tenor.

O, dry up your tears dear Kathleen, And cease that heart-rending strain; And

Bass.

Piano.

I will promise you, darling, I'll never be angry a - gain.

I will promise you, darling, I'll never be angry a - gain.
